THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF
HEROES UNITED GOLF SCRAMBLE LEAGUE

Spring 2022 has arrived!

Hard to believe it's already time for a new season. This is such an exciting time to explore new golf courses, meet new people, and spread the word about our League. We are growing everyday! Here are a few things that happened in the off season: fundraising at the LPGA Tournament of Champions, attending veteran networking events in the Orlando area, attending The PGA Show and connecting with Adaptive Golf, finding new golf courses, building our connections for the League, and creating a new website at www.heroesunitedgolf.org.

As the first event approached we knew the weather could potentially stop our day. But, in true Florida fashion we had severe weather with threats of tornadoes in the morning and by the time we arrived at Rio Pinar the rain had stopped. Thanks to awesome volunteers like Marcy, Dan, Corey, and Lennon and her parents we kicked off with great excitement. Keep reading to see what golf and sports psychology (sports psyc) tips were shared in the NOW ON THE TEE section. Head to the GAME ON section to see which team won our first round and our player standings. Big shout out to Dan and Marcy with Bobcat Realty for the raffle prizes, too!

PERFORMANCE ZONE

Golf tips are the performance!

When inside of 100 yards, try using more club and swing at a slower speed or half of your normal swing. Doing so will increase your chances of getting on the green and putting for your next shot. Full swings with a wedge isn't always the best option.

GRIT

Sports Psyc is where it's at!

We've all heard that winning at golf is 100 yards in; your approach. Cue the scary music. Sure it's true, rounds are won and lost in those 100 yards. Yet, the narrative is up to you. If you put all the pressure on these 100 yards and create a tension in your mind and body AND game, then what are the odds you're gonna hit that great shot? Hmm. So, let's create a new narrative. Make every shot your favorite shot, every approach your favorite, and every opportunity to putt the most exciting part of the game. It's really up to you.
