HEROES UNITED GOLF SCRAMBLE LEAGUE

East Coast Golf Goes Like This... Round 3

First, we're sending our thoughts out to all of our players, sponsors, and families around Florida now that we're enduring the aftermath of Hurricane Ian. Please reach out if you need anything! Besides your family here there are other resources... Disaster Distress Hotline 1800.985.5990 or text "TalkWithUs" for English or "Hablanos" for Spanish to 66746 to connect with a trained crisis counselor.

We finished a round! The rain finally granted us the opportunity to finish the round and Dave, Eddie, Jeff and Phil were the winners. We had SEVERAL putts that "should've been" but didn't make it because it swirled around and lipped out. Kind of amazing how many times that happened at Duran. And, as always we enjoyed an excellent dinner and shared some stories afterwards.

Now we prepare for THREE rounds of golf in THREE weekends in a row. First up, we're headed Eagle Creek on the 8th, back to North Shore on the 16th, and Kissimmee Bay on the 22nd.

Announcements:

We're selling basketball tickets: Nov 9th Magic vs Mavericks and Feb 9th Magic vs Nuggets. Check your email for those links.

Our fundraising golf tournament is Monday, December 5th. The flyer is included here. Please spread the word we're looking for Sponsors and Players! Go to www.heroesunitedgolf.org/winter-tournament.

NOW ON THE TEE

PERFORMANCE ZONE

Coach Matt's Golf Tips!

When hitting a tee shot, the height you place your golf ball on the tee can influence the flight of your golf ball in multiple ways. If you haven't already discovered the height that works best for you, try taking a driver and place the height of the ball a little less than halfway above your driver face. This promotes hitting up on the ball at impact and helping to maximize height and distance.

GRIT

Sports Psych is where it's at!

Resilience is defined as the ability to quickly overcome adversities. Whether we're dealing with weather or course elements we must face an adversity. In life we also face adversities; meeting new people, trying something new, retiring, taking a new job. How you choose to think about this change can define how you react. Things to consider: What can go right? What possibilities lie ahead? Who will you allow yourself to be?
